CADIZ CAMP MERTING.—A correspondent writes of the Cadiz camp meeting: The meeting is now in full progress and the best of order prevails. Notwithstanding the fact that no excursion trains were run on Sunday, more than four thousand people were en the grounds that day. Revs. T. McClary, Thos. Wilson and "California" Taylor gave the neople able sermons on Sabbath. Dr. A. C. George, of this city, is spoken of as having greatly profited and pleased the people. 'Good feeling is the prevailing feature of the meeting. The encampment, at present, consists of forty-five tents. Dr. DeHass was expected to be present yesterday. The meeting will close on Thursday.

OUR FIRE DEPARTMENT.—Apropos of the recent reorganization of our Fire Department, the Firema's Journal, of New York, pays it the following compliment:

"The Wheeling, W. Va., Fire Department has of late been considerably estrengthened. There are now three ment stationed in each of the engine houses and two men in the Eighas Ward hose house; in the engine houses, one foreman, one engineer and one hostler; in the hose house, one foreman and one hostler. This makes eleven full paid men, at $600 per annum, and thirty-nine minute men, who receive $50 per annum. Chief Engineer William Eccles is a very good if Ireman, a man of excellent judgment, and

From the Washington Reporter of last sight we learn that Capt. A. B. Booth of this city, was married to Miss Nellie M. Young, of Cleveland, O., by Joseph F. Mayes, Esq., at West Alexander, on Sunday last. Iron. J. J. Burns, State Commissioner of Schools of Ohio, is at the New McLure.

Boat Race?—Last night several members of the Nail City Boat Club and Sam. Brown, of the Brown Club, met at Sheekey's saloon, on Market street, for the purpose of arranging the preliminaries of another race between George Weisgerber, of the Brown Club, and Lonis Felsing, of the Nail City. After a protracted meeting and a heated discussion of the several propositions submitted by each of the club representatives, both withdrew without having arrived at a conclusion in the matter. From Mr. C. W. sion in the matter. From Mr. C. W. Seabright of the Nail City, we dearned that they wished to match their finan for a three or five mile race, for $500 aside for the former or $1,000 for the latter, in two washes from the five the first the former or $1,000 for the latter, in two washes from the Statistics. weeks from next Saturday, upon the same conditions and under the same articles of

"When found Mr. Hubbard was stretched at full length upon the ground, and from the appearance of things he had evidently gone to the grove and sat down upon the stump of a sapling, and then spring then then had taken off his hat, (which was lying close by) placed the revolver to his temple and fired, and then sprang forward in the throes of death. The revolver was tightly clutched in his right hand. His face was very much disfigured, as the ball was an unusually large one."

Mr. Hubbard was a native of this city, and was about 54 years of age at the time of his death. He and his brother Henry have been engaged in the lumber business for many years, doing business just south of Sixteenth street, on the creek bank. He has once or twice been prominently before the people as a politician, and in 1878 was the opponent of Hon. Ben. Wilson in the Congressional contest of that year, and received a most flattering vote in this city and county.
